WARRANT FOR J. B. VANHOOK

Is Sworn Out by Mr. John Oaks, Charging Bigamy.—Accused Was Formerly Teacher at Trapp.

Determined to stop all communication between his daughter, Mrs. Mary Vanhook, and her alleged bigamous husband, J. B. Vanhook, Mr. John Oaks, of Ford, this county, issued a warrant for Vanhook, who is thought to be at Indianapolis.

Chief McCord sent the warrant to the Chief of Police at Indianapolis but he has received no word in regard to it and he fears that Vanhook has left the city. The chief telegraphed to Indianapolis late Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Vanhook is now critically ill at Lexington and her death has been feared. Mrs. Oaks went to Lexington and found that Vanhook had been writing endearing letters to her daughter and determined to have the man arrested.

Oaks states in the warrant that Vanhook has another living wife and three children in Pulaski county, who are said to be in destitute circumstances owing to Vanhook's desertion.

Vanhook first came to this county as a book agent. While plying his trade at Ford he met pretty Mary Oaks, whom he by his smooth tongue and neat appearance induced to marry him. The marriage took place in March, 1907. When the marriage license was secured Vanhook requested the clerk to withhold it from publication.

In 1910 Vanhook was selected to teach the school at Trapp. He made an excellent teacher and was popular with the patrons of the school.

Vanhook's teaching, however, was his undoing, for a State Inspector looking over the books in County Superintendent Lanter's office saw the man's name and recognized him as the husband of a destitute wife and the father of three children in Pulaski county.

"That man teaching school here and his wife and children starving!" exclaimed the Inspector.

In order to verify his discoveries, the Inspector directed Superintendent Lanter to write to Pulaski. This he did and found that Vanhook was the same man.

Mrs. Vanhook and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oaks, were notified that Vanhook had a living wife and suit was brought for divorce, charging Vanhook with bigamy. It is said that Mrs. Vanhook would not have brought the suit, had she not been urged to do so by her parents.

The warrants states that Oaks was first informed of his son-in-law's other wife in April, 1911—a period of four years after the marriage; that Mrs. Oaks questioned Vanhook about his previous wife and that he left soon after and has not since been back to this city.

According to friends of the couple they were very happy together and it is not believed that Mrs. Vanhook desired a separation.

Mr. Oaks would probably not have prosecuted Vanhook, further than to secure a divorce, had not the recent correspondence been discovered.

NEGRO MAN CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY

Raymond Blye is Accused of Stealing And Executing a Chicken Which Belonged to Mr. J. C. M. Day.

A warrant was issued Thursday charging Raymond Blye, colored, with grand larceny for the alleged stealing of chicken from Mr. John C. M. Day. The trial was fixed for Friday night in the Police Court.

Blye has been in jail for some time, having been arrested on suspicion. When the negro was arrested he had blood on the southern end of his trousers, which the police think came from a chicken whose head he had pulled off. Blye, however, explained the presence of the blood by saying that his nose had been bleeding.

Insurance of $5,000 was carried in Hogman's Agency in this city. The Day store was one of the largest in Eastern Kentucky. It is not known how the fire originated.

Mr. Day is a brother of Messrs. Floyd and John Day, of this city, and is well known here; where he has many friends who will regret to hear of his misfortune.

MASQUERADERS ARE THE WHOLE SHOW

Large Crowd is Present For Affair at Auditorium, Which Proves to be a Big Success.

A large crowd was present for the masquerade at the Auditorium skating rink on Thursday night, and the originality of the ideas and skill in the execution of the costumes were the source of much comment.

The first prize was awarded to Miss Carrie McEwan who as a country girl was the very impersonation of the bucolic belle.

Miss Carrie Lee Warner, who carried off the first prize at the former masquerade, was awarded the second prize at Thursday night's affair. She was attired as a witch.

Mr. Chas. Lockman, as a trapper, won the third prize.

In the mile championship race, which was a good one, Mr. Albert Graves came out ahead. This entitled Mr. Graves to entrance for the championship contest to be given on the evening of February 28.

RARE TREAT AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Two of the Most Wonderful Missionaries in The World Will Speak In This City Sunday.

In the evening, Dr. Royal J. Dye, of Bolegne, Africa, will tell of his wonderful church on the Congo river, in the heart of Africa.

This church, many of whose members were formerly savage cannibals, itself supports seventy missionaries, a record not equaled by any other church in the world. It was founded by Dr. Dye, who is still its pastor.

OUTLINE OF WORK BEING DONE BY D. A. R.

Alex Skovgaard, Famous Danish Violin to Give Concert Here Under Auspices of Hart Chapter.

On Wednesday, February 28, Skovgaard, the Danish violinist, with Miss Ethel May Wright, soprano, and Miss Alice McClung, pianist, will give a concert under the auspices of Hart Chapter, at the home of Miss Mary Belle Field Miller.

Skovgaard needs no introduction, as he is no stranger to the musical world having played by request before King Christian, of Denmark; King Oscar, of Sweden; King Haakon, of Norway, and Emperor Wilhelm, of Germany. His violin is a Stradivarius and cost $13,000. The public deems it a rare privilege to hear Skovgaard in Winchester.

It will be a fitting time to bring before the public the noble work of the D. A. R. The outlined work of the National Society includes some tremendous undertakings of national and patriotic import, which will demand for accomplishment both devoted effort and generous contributions of money. The endeavors are of course shared by all the states with equal enthusiasm, and in mentioning them, Kentucky is included.

The first cause to which all chapters are requested to devote their energies is, of course, the completion of Continental Hall, in Washington, where the Daughters will have, at once, an official home beautifully adorned and a reverend memorial to the noble men and women of our country's early days.

Important as is its completion, it in no wise interferes with the more characteristic labors proper to a company of women inspired by love of country.

The splendid reports published from committees devoted to "Preservation of Historic Spots," to "Suppression of Child Labor," to forming of children's patriotic societies bear witness to the fact. In all these movements Kentucky's Daughters have borne their part. Kentucky's laws for the suppression of child labor are among the best in the union. Her contribution to the cause of patriotic education in the mountain districts have been considerable and are annually increasing.

In marking historic spots, the D. A. R. have been untiring. Kentucky being singularly rich in places of heroic interest. Each chapter is devoted to the accomplishment of some special work. One of the youngest, Hart Chapter of Winchester, has not been idle. Each year, has made liberal donations to southern educational work, has given, annually, a medal in our public school to the pupil having the highest average in history, has promised to furnish and maintain a room in out-patient hospital; has given to Associated Charities, and many other causes.

The true spirit and high aim of this society of D. A. R. are just beginning to be understood in our community and the prospects of future growth and earnest work is all that could be desired.

All the efforts of the Daughters are expended along lines singularly appropriate to the endeavor of women who have it in their power to so foster and encourage in their respective communities that sturdy love of country and her best interests, which alone can create a demand for disinterested legislation, and which alone can supply the fusion fire, which will blend the diverse elements of our civilization into the great farce for international good, which seems the fitting destiny of this Land of the Free.

SIG SPEYER BROUGHT BACK FROM THE LAST

He Refuses to Talk About His Case Except to Say He Expects to Adjourn Matters.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 23.—Assistant Chief of Police W. Malcolm Brown arrived in Lexington from New York City Thursday night, having as a prisoner Sigmund H. Speyer, who was arrested last week in Hoboken, New Jersey, just as he was about to sail for Europe, charged with having embezzled a large sum from the firm of Speyer & Sons, local hide and commission merchants.

Within an hour after his arrival Speyer was released on a bond in the sum of $500, with Moses Kaufman, the well-known local merchant, as his surety, for his appearance in Police Court Friday afternoon for examining trial.

Refuses to Discuss Case. Speyer refused to discuss his case with the newspaper men, further than to say he believed matters could be agreeably adjusted between himself and the firm of Speyer & Sons, and that he did not apprehend any serious difficulty.

He would neither deny nor confirm the statement that he had embezzled money from the firm of Speyer & Sons, with whom he was confidentially employed for about eight years, and could not be drawn out as to whether he would make restitution of the amount he is said to have embezzled, which, it has been rumored, is between $25,000 and $40,000. He did not seem greatly perturbed over the difficulty in which he is involved.

Jacob Speyer is Informed

Assistant Chief Brown and Speyer went directly from the Union Station, where they arrived at 6:35 o'clock on the Chesapeake & Ohio train, which was an hour and fifty minutes late, to police headquarters, and Assistant Chief Brown made known his arrival over the telephone of Jacob Speyer, member of the firm of Speyer & Sons, who swore out a warrant for Sigmund Speyer's arrest.

A short time after their arrival at police headquarters, Jacob Speyer arrived there and, without taking up a discussion with Sigmund Speyer in regard to the cause of his arrest, a bail bond was soon written by Magistrate Charles Dodd, the amount of which was fixed at $500, and Mr. Kaufman signed it.

Sig Goes to Hotel

Sig Speyer then went to a hotel and registered for the night, promising to appear before Judge Butler T. Southgate in Police Court at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon for his examining trial.

Assistant Chief Brown said he had experienced no difficulty in having the requisition papers for Speyer's return honored by Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, and said Speyer was willing to return to Lexington.

Miss Flora Nelson, leading lady with the Wheeler Sisters Big Stock Company, at the Opera House all next week, commencing Monday, February 26.

"A PAIR OF COUNTRY KIDS."

The pair of kids at the Winchester Opera House on Friday night, from all reports are a lively pair and are ably managed and assisted by a competent company of ladies and gentlemen, as are all such high-class companies presenting rural comedies. These companies should not be confounded with the coarse and vulgar farmer plays that have been touring the country for years and whose principal merit is a noisy brass band. The latter day rural play is a pleasing homespun affair presented by a cast of intelligent people and framed in a natural rural atmosphere such as we have all at some time in our lives been familiar with. "A Pair of Country Kids" is of the latter class and will please the old and young and is a real novelty in many respects, and we can assure the patrons of the Winchester Opera House that they will surely get their money's worth in watching the antics of the kids for two hours and a half.

CONGRESSMAN CANTRILL ANSWERS SCHOBERTH

Protests Against Legislature Modifying With His Call For Primary In The Seventh District.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 23.—Congressman Campbell Cantrill Thursday night gave out the following statement:

"To the Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District:

"I would not deem Mr. Schobert's card appearing in Wednesday's Courier-Journal worthy of reply were it not for the fact that he undertakes to make serious charges of a personal nature against me.

"I desire to say that I welcome a thorough investigation of the insinuations in his article and that I am ready to go, with him, before the people of the Seventh District. I make no professions of being a saint, but I am willing that my moral character shall be compared with those who are now seeking to destroy me.

"The matters to which Mr. Scho-berth refers were thoroughly discussed before the people of the Seventh District two years ago and I was completely vindicated at their hands, having carried six of the eight counties of the district and receiving a majority of about three thousand votes.

Says Record Vindicates Him

"I was not content to rest my case there but the charges were brought against me in the very close of the campaign, two years ago, were taken by me, into the Franklin Circuit and that record shows that I was completely vindicated.

"Upon this issue and upon other issues I am perfectly willing that a search-light shall be turned upon my record, but I desire to say, here, that before this campaign is over I intend to turn the search-light upon the record of some other gentlemen and let the public know of their inside careers."

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes
Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness.
Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradual-any life left in the hair roots.

CIRCUIT JUDGE STOUT DENOUNCES JURORS

Orders That Five Members of Scott County Panel Shall Not Serve So Long As He Presides.

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 22.—The Scott county grand jury in making its final report Tuesday afternoon, failed to return indictments growing out of alleged election frauds in this county, and as a result five of the jurymen were denounced from the bench by Circuit Judge Stout, who issued an order to the clerk of the court, to go upon the records, that neither of these men shall serve on any jury, grand or petit, while Judge Stout presides over this court. The five men so ruled against are J. M. Donovan, J. M. Woodlums, Lew Williamson, Preston Thomasson and S. B. Penn.

The other seven members of the panel stated to Judge Stout that they had voted to return indictments against alleged violators of the election laws, but the other five thought the evidence insufficient.

The October 1911 grand jury reported that evidence existed that gross irregularities had been committed at the State Democratic primary last July, and recommended that the February grand jury continue the work it had started. It is understood the same evidence was presented, but no mention was made of any of it in the final report.

When Judge Stout learned that no indictments had been returned, he informed the members of the panel that he knew that the evidence was before them and that charges should have been made. Then he called each member of the jury by name and asked him he had voted on the question of indictments. The five names above stated they had not believed the evidence sufficient for the return of true bills. Then Judge Stout delivered the severe arraignment of the five, ending with the court order.
